

Wilkes County, is the home of moonshine and NASCAR. Our legendary history producing quality spirits has paved the way for a refreshment revival. One that includes all kinds of libations. But it is the unique growing conditions, rich Blue Ridge Mountain soil, and cool breezes found in Wilkes that create the perfect environment for quality wine-growing. From sustainable and bio-dynamic farms to expansive villas with breathtaking views, Wilkes is home to a quality wine experience like none other. Explore the nine wineries that Wilkes has to offer along with more than 50 wineries within an hour's drive of Wilkesboro.

Wilkesboro will wow you with a newly-revitalized historic downtown, mind-blowing musical talent, stunningly scenic mountain views, heart-pounding outdoor adventures, and Southern small-town charm. Wilkesboro is conveniently located close to I-77 at exit 73B and minutes from the High Country towns of Boone, Blowing Rock and Banner Elk.
